

2016 Thomas Henry Sonoma Pinot Noir

Vintage Summary

2016 turned out to be one of the best harvest seasons for every varietal of grape in both Napa and Sonoma. Our new Pinot Noir is certainly no exception. The Sonoma County release was sourced from Sonoma Carneros, Sonoma Coast and Sonoma Valley, creating a beautiful and powerful blend of flavors.

Tasting Notes

This wine is robust and flavorful with aromatics of cherry with a touch of strawberry coupled with big berry flavors, dark cherries, black raspberry, with just a hint of cinnamon. The bright garnet color of the wine displays a velvety texture, all wrapped into an earthy feel.

Serving Suggestions

Enjoy this delicious wine with barbeque pork chops, salmon, or pasta dishes. It also pairs well with a variety of cheeses, both hard and soft.
