

COMM. G.B. BURLOTTO

Langhe Nebbiolo doc Rosso

The bouquet is fresh, with rich slightly lemony berry fruit supported by clean spice. Nice depth and balance, and considerable freshness. The palate is ample and soft, with rich red berry fruit supported by a bright, almost citric acidity and smooth sweet tannins. Will drink very well with a stew or a roast, also great at a cookout with succulent grilled meats.
