

ABOUT THE DOMAINE

Domaine des Lises is the private estate of Maxime Graillet, who has also taken over the running of the family domaine, Alain Graillet. Although the wineries are collocated, they're run separately. At Domaine des Lises, Graillet uses a much smaller proportion of whole clusters in his fermentations, making them more approachable young. He likes the 2016s, saying, "I like this type of vintage. . . . It's very classical."
