

Francois Mikulski Meursault 1er cru Genevrières

The best aging potential among our appellations. Its nose has characteristic depth, expressing flowery aromas, resin, tea, bergamot, orange, almonds, complex spices, black pepper, musk... On the palate it is definitely chalky, with spicy white fruits, full-bodied and fresh, mineral and with a long and intense empyreumatic finish on flavours of grapes, hot steel and grilled hazelnut