About the Winery

At the foot of the majestic Schlossberg hill in Alsace stands one of the finest estates in all of France. In the words of Robert Parker, “Colette and her daughter Laurence...pushed Weinbach to the pinnacle of Alsace’s qualitative pyramid.” Now run by daughter Catherine Faller, she and her team have pursued the family’s passion for the great wines of Alsace and its unrelenting commitment to delivering excellence.

Vintage Conditions

Every vintage brings its share of surprises and challenges, and after a precocious 2014 and a solar 2015, 2016 was once again a one-of-a-kind crop, quite challenging, but eventually yielding great wines. The wines are extremely fresh, showing character, pure fruit aromas wrapped around beautifully structuring acidities. They are already seductive but give also great promise for aging. Truly a one-of-a-kind vintage that rendered great achievements, but also some great lessons.

About the Wine

A fine, perfectly dry, seductively fragrant and fruity wine with intense grapey aromas and taste – dry Alsatian Muscat is not as well-known as it deserves. The grapes are from our domaine vineyard, Clos des Capuchins, and from the respected Altenbourg vineyard. 70% Muscat Ottonel and 30% Muscat d’Alsace.

Tasting Note

Very perfumed and floral on the nose as is typical for the varietal. On the palate, very creamy with a touch of butterscotch and quite viscous and concentrated - it coats your palate. Some peach and licorice notes are present as well. Finishes with rising acidity.

Food Pairing

Ideal as an aperitif. Excellent with asparagus and vegetable appetizers and dishes, as well as lighter exotic cuisine.
