“This opens with a rewarding wave of berry, milk chocolate and creamy oak aromas. The mouth-feel is concentrated and intense, with juicy, fresh flavors of wild berry and plum. The finish is spicy, fairly oaky and seriously crafted.”

Carmenere

Very intense color. On the nose there is a wonderfully strong expression of the character of the Carménère variety (fruits of the forest, eucalyptus, and leather), with toasted notes (bay and clove), licorice, and black pepper. Very ample palate with rounded tannins. To finish, aromas of toasted bread and spices ending in a long aftertaste.
