

Hubert Lamy Chassagne Montrachet "la Goujonne"

Area: Chassagne-Montrachet - Côte d'Or - Bourgogne – France

Winemakers in Saint Aubin since 1640, Hubert created the winery in 1973 from 9ha. His son, Olivier, has worked with him since 1998. Today, father and son farm 18.5 ha of which 10.8 ha are “Premiers crus” like Saint Aubin, Puligny Montrachet, Chassagne Montrachet and Santenay.

Area: 1.05 ha

Grape variety: Pinot noir

Soil: clay and deep with East and South-East exposure

Origin: this plot may have belonged to Goujon family

Vine-growing: No fertilizer for 15 years but some organic compost are added.

Low yield. All the vineyards are treated using low doses of natural products, sulfur or copper. This is known in French as lutte raisonnée (treatment with products that respect the existing flora and which are applied only when necessary). The Soil is plowed about 4 times a year.

Tasting: Beautiful dark ruby red color. Nose of black fresh fruits. Rich palate with ripe tannins

Potential aging: drink between 2017 and 2021
